Fish for bass or catfish, walk the trails, or sit quietly and watch a sunset over the lake. Things to Do We offer year-round fishing, camping, paddling, lake swimming, hiking and biking, water-skiing, picnicking, geocaching and nature photography. Reserve our picnic pavilion for your next group gathering. If you plan to swim, read through our swimming safety tips before your visit. We do not have lifeguards. Fishing & Boating The power plant on Martin Creek Lake keeps waters warm year-round. Anglers reel in largemouth bass, crappie, channel catfish, yellow catfish, tilapia and sunfish. We have a boat ramp, lighted fishing pier and a fish cleaning station. We also rent canoes. We do not need a fishing license to fish from shore or pier in a Texas state park. Bring your own fishing gear or borrow ours! Many fishing tournaments are held at the park in the winter. During these tournaments, the boat ramp area may be crowded; please check our list of fishing tournaments for dates. Get detailed fishing and lake information for Martin Creek Lake. Trails We have nearly four miles of hike and bike trails. Follow the footsteps of early Texans as you explore the park. The Old Henderson Road Loop traces a former trade route for travelers between Henderson and Shreveport. On the 1.5-mile Harmony Hill Loop, look for remnants of the community of Harmony Hill, now a Nationally Registered Historic District. Learn more on our Trails Information page. Camping Choose from campsites with water and electricity or primitive campsites situated on an island. We also have screened shelters and cabins. Ranger Programs We offer programs on the park's history and nature. Check our Events page for the schedule. Contact the park to arrange a program for your group. Learn more about the park on our Nature and History pages, and by downloading our Interpretive Guide | PDF. Connect with us on our Facebook page and on Instagram @martincreeklake. Support state parks by donating to the Texas Parks & Wildlife Foundation. Area Attractions Nearby attractions include Starr Family Home State Historic Site, Texas State Railroad, and the historic cities of Marshall, Longview, Kilgore, Carthage and Henderson.
